

I wish to protest the recent vote on consolidation of ownership. I feel that this decision is not in the public interest and will pave the way for consolidation of power. I am voicing my concern with our elected congressional leaders and hope that this ruling will be overruled.